

Melanie Schambach

Belonging Action, 2011

Comes to Paddle to Lummi Tribal Canoe Journey July 24-28, 2019

Join Melanie as she once again lays sets the stage for our diverse communities to come together and create a moving and magnificent piece of where we share messages of our loss and grief and hopes and dreams. This participatory mobile mural invites everyone to uplift the spirit of unity by painting stories of hope, healing, and joy during the Lummi Paddle. You can share a story, write a message, or paint an image; no skills required to participate. Through art, we come together to share our hearts and document this important time in history.

While some expense are being covered there is an urgent need for additional donations for transportation expenses and materials. Please consider contributing. Write checks to the Bellingham Unitarian Fellowship and put "Melanie Schambach" in the memo line. Send to 1207 Elsworth St., Bellingham, WA 98226.

Our Painted Responsibilities, Totem Pole Journey 2014

Tokitae Totem Pole Journey, 2018-19

*Sponsored in part by Allied Arts of Whatcom
County, Olympia
Unitarian Unviersalist
Right Relations Team,
Bellingham Unitarian
Fellowship Native
American Connections
Committee and you!*