

Backbone Campaign Artful Activism Workshop

Backbone Campaign is excited to show off its artful activism tools that anyone can borrow to bring attention to issues you care about, in order to protect the people, places and species you love.

We'll set up stations in the room where folks can get an overview and hands on experience with the various tools available for creative activism. We'll share stories of what we've learned over our 16 year history, and discuss ideas for the campaigns folks in the room are involved with.

Tools include

- LED light panels that affix to deer fence netting
- Props, including Inflatables that your community can borrow
- Giant banner making
- Light projection set up

No skills or experience necessary.

The Meaningful Movies Project – Supporting An Intersectional Approach to Education, Advocacy and Action

The Meaningful Movies Project is a non-profit organization that assists neighborhoods, groups and individuals organize, educate and advocate using the power of social justice documentary film and relevant conversation to build positive and meaningful community and a more just and peaceful world.

It is the organizing arm of the Meaningful Movies Network, a collective of autonomous neighborhood and community Meaningful Movies groups that have agreed to work together and support one another to meet these ends.

This presentation will give an overview of the requirements and benefits of forming a Meaningful Movies group and will provide information about the ways that Meaningful Movies events are helping our communities.
