

WHAT ARE YOU CALLED TO DO NEXT

- Bring what I learned to our fellowship and implement the ideas in our programming
- Enter my notes into my computer; organize into a report; share it at CUUC! Follow-up
- Learn more about Sound Alliance and the Poor People's Campaign
- Read summary notes and reflect on them
- Deep dive into state legislation
- Discern my "mission" and start pulling on the thread!
- Find out about volunteering @ Purdy Correctional with Quilting Guild
- Continue my work on climate (new book)
- Focus on issues that affect people of color and how income disproportionately
- Invite Hedrick Smith to speak at our church-UUC
- Be more consistent in my advocacy
- Continue work with Earth Ministry and Drawdown, with intersectionality clear in all the work
- Educate myself and figure out whether the Poor People's Campaign is the place I belong or elsewhere
- Follow up
- Think about what I learned
- To deepen my commitment to justice work
- Decompress; network more; share information with my congregation
- Take it all back to my congregation; hope to light interests/grow passion
- Access tools and resources I learned about to help move the ball forward
- Called to help my fellowship find community partners to work with in accomplishing mutual goals
- Pick one/two areas of focus/action to research/join
- Contact evangelical churches on homelessness
- Create resources for faith community and others to be more deeply involved/connected
- Look at relational driven meetings rather than agenda driven meetings
- Connect to people whose passions/groups mirror my/our needs
- Connect with as many as I can to brainstorm/assist/compare experiences I'm living now and in the future
- Revitalize my communications
- Carry on carrying on
- I'm energized to move forward

- I feel called to continue to push my UU community to think more about whiteness as a primary identity
- I want to focus on climate change
- Do more outreach for the Poor People's Campaign
- Share info I learned w/church, family, friends & coworkers
- Connect with Olympia UUs on Criminal Justice
- Get involved with something in my community and congregation
- I'm called to continue organizing for direct action to slow/stop business as usual
- Continue facilitating an Election Reform group
- Work with Sr. Youth Group on their Environmental Justice projects
- Carry on
- Work on carbon reduction investments
- Find groups of marginalized people and get their opinions on what action needs to be taken
- 1. Think about what is important to me/us now; 2. Look at that/those in a range of contexts including through the perspective of those I may be less inclined to respect 3. Identify a few things that I can either enjoy doing easily and well
